

Aurantium, the Syracuse University Undergraduate Philosophy Journal, is seeking original undergraduate philosophical contributions. Open to students at any accredited institution, we invite papers on diverse philosophical topics, including ethics, metaphysics, political philosophy, and more.

Submission Guidelines:

- ☛ Must not exceed 30 pages in length (12pt font, double-spaced)
- ☛ We recommend using the Chicago Manual of Style
- ☛ You must be a matriculated undergraduate student at the time of submission (not necessarily at the time of publication – i.e., Seniors may apply)
- ☛ Your name and any other personal information must not be included on the document (if those details are a part of your piece, simply reach out to us)
- ☛ Your piece must be entirely original – free from plagiarism of any kind including the use of AI writing technology
- ☛ ALL PIECES MUST BE SUBMITTED VIA ATTACHED GOOGLE FORM BY AUGUST 26TH, 2024 (11:59pm)
  - o <https://forms.gle/oxm5hLEaaziyzJQB8>

For inquiries, contact Leana Bashar at lsbashar@syr.edu and/or our Instagram account @aurantium_at_su

We are excited to see your submissions and expand the philosophical discourse.

Aurantium Editorial Team